This creative activity will be strictly woodcarving and will be sponsored by the Steele County Free Fair. There will be no age limit and it will be open to the public.

RULES & REGULATIONS

- All work must be in the hands of the superintendent of wood-carving at the Fine Arts Building at the fairgrounds between 1:00 and 2:00 p.m. on the Sunday, August 12th, prior to the start of fair week. No carvings will be accepted after this time.
- Each carver will be responsible for picking up his/her entries on Monday, the day after the fair, between 9:30- 10:30 a.m.
- All entries must be accompanied by a sheet listing the carver's name, address and phone number, plus a listing of each piece to be shown, and insurance value of each carving. Work exhibited will not be insured against damage or theft. This is the responsibility of the artist.
- All carvings will be for display only, with no official judging or competition to be conducted.
